Dear friends of Indonesia

Let us inform you on behalf of the Slovak – Indonesian Chamber of Commerce (SIOK) founders and the organizers of the “Indonesian Thursdays” as well about the postponement of a lecture and presentation given by ITPC (Indonesian Trade Promotion Center) representative Mr. Nusa Eka, which supposed to be held on March 17 on the theme “Interests of Indonesia to establish the close economic cooperation with the countries in Central Europe” to the third Thursday in May i.e. May 19, 2011.

Mr. Nusa Eka has requested us due to his urgent trip to Indonesia.

At the same time we inform you that the "Indonesian Thursday" in April is scheduled according to the plan on April, 21 at 5.30 pm. The lecture will be focused on the current political developments in Indonesia and its perspectives and given by the former Ambassador of the Slovak Republic to Indonesia, PhDr. Peter Holásek. Invitation will be delivered on time.

Sincerely,
SIOK
